

Raptor Herbicide

There's no better choice for conventional soybeans than Raptor® herbicide. Raptor is a unique post-emergent herbicide designed for growers who prefer the yield potential and disease resistance of conventional soybean varieties.

Raptor
Herbicide

Labeled Crops

Raptor
Herbicide

Problems Controlled

Barley, volunteer
Brome, California
Brome, downy
Buckwheat, wild
Buttercup
Cereals, volunteer oat
Chickweed, common
Cupgrass, woolly*
Filaree, whitestem
Foxtail, giant
Goosegrass*
Henbit
Jointed Goatgrass
Kochia
Lambsquarters, common
Lettuce, miners
Mallow, common
Mallow, Venice
Marshelder
Millet, wild proso
Morningglory, entireleaf
Morningglory, ivyleaf

* suppression only

Morningglory, tall
Mustard spp.
Mustard, tumble
Nettle, burning

Nettleleaf goosefoot
Nightshade, black
Nightshade, Eastern black
Nightshade, hairy
Oats, volunteer
Panicum, fall
Pennycress, field
Pigweed, palmer amaranth
Pigweed, prostrate
Pigweed, redroot (carelessweed)
Pigweed, smooth
Pigweed, spiny
Puncturevine
Purslane, common
Radish, wildRagweed, giant (buffaloweed)
Rocket, yellow
Ryegrass, Italian
Shattercane
Signalgrass, broadleaf
Smartweed, ladysthumb
Smartweed, Pennsylvania
Smartweed, swamp
Spurge, prostrate
Swinecress
Tansymustard, green
Thistle, Russian
Velvetleaf
Wild oats
Kochia - Raptor controls non-ALS-resistant kochia only

Lambsquarters - Raptor controls common lambsquarters at 4 oz/A east of the Rocky Mountains.